PHILADELPHIA,

Dear Sir:-

We beg to call attention to our extensive importations of Azaleas, the largest coming to the United States, which have arrived in excellent condition.

We have now filled all our advance orders which have given universal satisfaction and we are prepared to still supply plants of the same standard quality at import prices as noted below. If you have not yet secured your supplies, or not as many as you anticipate you will require, we would advise to place your order for immediate shipment, not only securing the benefit of low import prices, but receiving your plants at a minimum cost of transportation.

The varieties we handle are only the best approved American Market sorts, and, while the leader "The Van der Cruysen" is again very scarce this season, we can still include 20% of this variety, while of Vervaeneana, Bernhard Andreas Alba, Deutsche Perle, Etc., etc., we can include any proportion that you may desire. Our prices for the three leading sizes are as follows for bushy plants, well set with buds:

10 to 12" crowns,	$4.50 per doz.	$35.00 per 100.
12 to 14" "	6.00 " "	45.00 " "
14 to 16" "	7.50 " "	55.00, " "

We also call attention to an extra fine lot of Genista Fragrans, a grand lot of plants in 6 in. pots, which ordinarily are well worth 50¢ but which, for the want of room to carry over Winter, we will offer for immediate delivery at $5.50 per doz. $25.00 per hundred.

Try them you will find them a profitable investment.

Yours truly,

Henry A. Dreer, Inc.,
